

How do you prioritize access to Sage PFW ERP in your office?

A sales representative is trying to enter a new order from an important client.

The warehouse manager needs to update the system to reflect the current inventory shipment.

It's time for your human resources specialist to finalize the end-of-month payroll.

Wouldn't work be more productive if everyone could log onto Sage PFW at once?

End the difficult decisions—everyone can access Sage PFW ERP at once with extra user seats!

You shouldn't have to prioritize the important transactions in your business. Additional Sage PFW user licenses allow everyone who needs to log on to do so simultaneously. And for a limited time, you can save 25 percent on added seats, but you must act by September 28, 2009!

You may need to add user licenses if:

- Members of your staff are unable to access Sage PFW when needed
- You need remote access
- You have added or are planning to add staff in your accounting, purchasing, or finance departments
- Members of your sales, warehouse, manufacturing, and shipping staff need access to information that would help them to be more productive
- You would like to save 25 percent on Sage PFW user licenses

Remember, every new Sage PFW user license added increases the efficiency of your organization and decreases the amount of time required for individual tasks!
